November 6, 2016 — Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us--both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

ALL TOO REAL Some thinkers laugh at religion, accusing believers of making up the idea of an all-powerful God in heaven just to comfort themselves. The Maccabees story turns that argument to dust. One after another, seven brothers and their mother accept torture and death because of their faith in God. Their religious belief brings not sugary comfort, but excessive cruelty. All the king asks them to do is to eat "forbidden" meat. If the Maccabees could agree that their religious laws are based on made-up fairy tales, then how easy it would be to ignore the Mosaic prohibition against eating pork! The king promises to make the last son rich and happy if he gives in. Instead, the faithful young Israelite holds firm to his religion and endures unspeakable torture. Religious belief, for the Maccabees, is no "opiate," no painkiller. No, they testify to the truth that God is real, and that following the Lord in discipleship can be difficult.

CONFIDENCE God is real. With complete faith in God's intimate love and mercy, believers face both joyful and tragic circumstances with confidence. Saint Paul prays for us to know this confidence: "May our Lord . . . encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." We join Saint Paul in this prayer, asking the Lord to give us the strength to speak and act rightly. Jesus encourages us at all times. He gives us hope that God's strength in us will grow, making us worthy to live forever in heaven. There, in paradise, we will no longer know death. As Jesus says in our Gospel today, we will be "like angels." Even though our lives on this earth must end, we live in hope. We may not be asked to die as martyrs, like the Maccabees, but every moment of every day, God offers us the very same hope and strength that helped the martyrs remain faithful to the end.

Today's Readings: 2 Mc 7:1-2, 9-14; Ps 17:1, 5-6, 8, 15; 2 Thes 2:16 -- 3:5; Lk 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]

Honoring Our Beloved Deceased

All Saints' Day
Blessing of the Graves
Sunday, November 6, 2016
St. John Cemetery — 12 Noon
Grace Memorial — 2:00 pm

The Mass Intention Book is open for the scheduling of Masses for the next year (2017). Forms are located on the bookshelves at the back of Church. You may also access FORMS on our church website, www.stjohnchurchplaq.org.

If you wish to schedule a Mass, please fill out a Mass Intention form. Please include your name, address and telephone number in the event we have questions about your intentions and need to contact you. We will try to schedule Masses in the order in which the forms are received to the best of our ability.

Please return the form and your check to the St. John Parish Office or drop it in the collection basket at any weekend Mass.

Book of Remembrance: On the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, we remember and pray for our loved ones who have died.

During the month of November, parishioners are encouraged to list the names of their deceased loved ones in the Book of Remembrance. This book will be near the stairs to the choir loft in church on November 5 and will remain during the month of November. You may write the names of loved ones in the book at your convenience.

God Bless our Dead

The Bishop's Annual Appeal Is an Essential Source of Funding and Encouragement

This past year, the Diocese of Baton Rouge celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of the first Bishop's Annual Appeal. The landmark anniversary appeal was the most successful ever, allowing the diocese to expand ministry programs, meet additional needs, and provide hope to even more of your neighbors and fellow parishioners. 122 members from St. John the Evangelist Parish participated in the anniversary campaign, contributing a total of $19,961.00. You are a valued member of your Catholic community, we thank you for your involvement, and we encourage you to support the BAA again.

In the mail this week, you may have received a packet from Bishop Robert Muench concerning this year's BAA, inviting you to Be Merciful. Our Heavenly Father has shown each of us great mercy, and serving others is an ideal way to reflect our gratitude. To the multitudes that gathered to listen, Jesus taught, "Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful" (Lk 6:36).

In light of the recent flooding, we recognize this may be a difficult time for many in our community. If you were affected, our thoughts and prayers are with you. Many individuals and families in need depend on vital funding from ministries supported by the BAA. Therefore, our work of vital ministry continues. If your situation allows, we respectfully invite you to "Be Merciful" and give to support the Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Christmas Cards for Inmates

The Catholic Community at Louisiana State Penitentiary and the Chaplain's Department are inviting our parish to participate in the Christmas card program. Their goal is to provide each inmate with at least 5 cards and envelopes.

Anyone interested in donating new religious Christmas cards should drop them off at the St. John Church office by Friday, December 2. Deacon Alfred Ricard will be taking the cards to the prison.

We will accept Birthday and Get Well cards also. Religious cards are preferred.

Our Hymn Selections this weekend are:

Entrance: Glory in the Cross

Music Issue 719

Preparation: Shelter Me, O God

Music Issue 468

Communion: You Are Near

Music Issue 430

Sending Forth: Lift High the Cross

Music Issue 720
