March 19, 2017 — Third Sunday of Lent

Education experts often debate testing: when to test students, why, and how. Our readings today suggest that testing is so central to the human experience that we require proofs even from God. In the book of Exodus, Moses gives two names to the spot where God provides water from a rock: Meribah, signifying complaint or bickering, and Massah, meaning a test or proof. When the Israelites complain of their thirst, God provides proof of divine providence. Water flows from a rock, and God passes the test. In the Gospel story of the Samaritan woman at the well, Jesus passes his own test with flying colors, convincing a skeptical woman that he is indeed the Messiah. Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans guarantees Christians permanent success--not because we are good at tests, but because God is. Jesus proves God's love once and for all by dying for us.

PROVE IT What does it take to convince us of the truth? Some of us need simply to hear from a trusted authority. Others need time to think an argument through for themselves, step by step. Many of us tend to learn the hard way, experiencing life's lessons in dramatic and personal ways. Various kinds of evidence work differently on each of us. For the parched and wandering Israelites, a miraculous source of water persuades them to return to belief in God. For the Samaritan woman, Jesus' prophetic knowledge of the intimate details of her life suffices. What will it be for us? What can convince us, forever, that God made us, saved us from death, and treasures us as beloved children? Saint Paul urges us to stop asking for proof; we need look no further than the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. He reminds us how unusual it is for good people to sacrifice themselves for other good people; it is utterly preposterous for a good person to give his life for "the ungodly," for sinners. Yet that is precisely what Jesus does for us.

LIVE IT Our insatiable need for proof is nothing to be ashamed of. Hunger for evidence points to an active intellect. Even after we learn an important truth, we need to nurture that knowledge throughout our whole lives. Most of us first heard about Jesus when we were children. We must continue to deepen our understanding as we mature. In a similar way, the Samaritans first believe their fellow townsman simply because of her testimony about Jesus. Then, after encountering him themselves, they are convinced Jesus is the savior of the world: "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savor of the world." Personal experience confirms and deepens their faith. "Harden not your hearts," the Psalmist tells us. Let's keep learning from God's signs all around us.

Today's Readings: Ex 17:3-7; Ps 95:1-2, 6-9; Rom 5:1-2, 5-8; Jn 4:5-42 [5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42]

March 19, 2017

Dear Family:

Blessings to you all on the Feast of St. Joseph!

This weekend we are celebrating the Third Sunday of Lent and the Feast of St. Joseph, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Patron of the Universal Church.

Today and for the next two Sundays, we will meet three interesting Gospel characters: the Samaritan woman, the man born blind, and Lazarus. They enlighten us - those of us already baptized and those preparing for Baptism at the Easter Vigil - how Jesus is constantly transforming us. All the Scriptures proclaimed on these days present images of Baptism and conversion.

How could the people in the First Reading be so ungrateful as to grumble about their thirst? God had already delivered them from slavery and Moses had led them to safety. But the people give into their fears and rebel. God responds like a patient, compassionate parent by giving them water from the rock - yet another expression of God's love for his people. Refreshed, they move forward into the new life God had promised.

Paul's theology of Baptism is evident throughout his Letter to the Romans. Today we hear him say: "The love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit" - like the waters in which we were baptized. Our salvation, Paul reminds us, comes from God's grace, not our own efforts. Our call is to live according to that grace.

In today's Gospel, Jesus converses with the Samaritan woman. Although the story begins with Jesus' thirst, it is the woman who is refreshed. She enters the story as a catechumen and becomes an evangelist, bearer of Good News!

Some questions for reflection:

How many references to water and Baptism do you find in today's readings?

How does our parish walk with the elect (those preparing for Baptism/Confirmation/Eucharist through the RCIA) during Lent?

Who has brought the Good News of the Lord into your life recently?

I want to thank the St. Joseph Altar Committee and all who in any way have helped prepare for this community event. Many hands and gifts come together in prayer and sacrifice to make this a special event for our church community and others who will join us for a wonderful meal. St. Joseph pray for us.

It is with regret we announce the retirement of Mrs. Andrea Young. Andrea has served as our Director of Religious Education since my arrival in 2013. She has been a blessing to our children and community. From Bible School to Confirmation, she has sought to be a good leader and servant. I offer my personal, heartfelt gratitude for all she has done for our parish family. God's gracious blessings be upon her and her family as she now begins a new life of retirement. According to Andrea, we will still see her around and she will still be serving. We look forward to our new life with her as well.

With the announcement of Andrea's retirement, we will be looking for a new Director of Religious Education.

Many thanks to all those who helped make our St. John School Auction a big success. It was good to be with you all as we celebrated at the great fundraiser.

We unveiled an initial plan for our capital campaign for St. John School at the Auction and it was well received. There will be more to come as we approach the beginning of the campaign in the fall. Please keep us in prayer.

Peace,

Fr. Greg Daigle

Director of Religious Education Position

With the retirement of faithful servant, Mrs. Andrea Young, we are now accepting applications for the Position of Director of Religious Education for our Parish School of Religion. Please present resumes to St. John the Evangelist Church, 57805 Main Street, Plaquemine, LA 70764.

RCIA CANDIDATES ATTEND RITE OF ELECTION

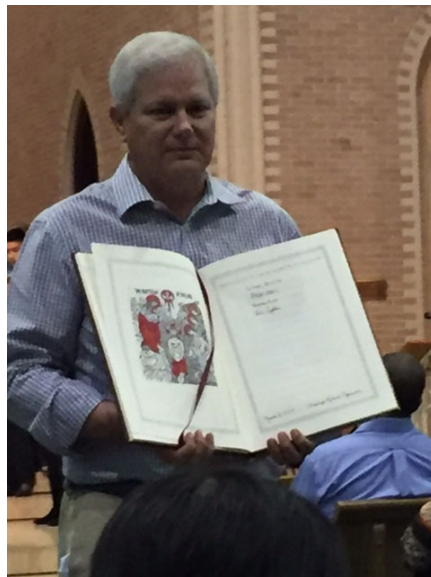

Congratulations to the RCIA candidates, who joined hundreds of other candidates to receive Bishop Muench's blessing at the Rite of Election Sunday, March 5, 2017 at St. Joseph Cathedral.

Please continue to pray for these candidates, pictured with their sponsors, on their faith journey as they prepare to join the Catholic Church at Easter Vigil.

BOBBY FREEMAN TRIBUTE

Friday, March 24, 2017
 Baton Rouge River Center
 Theater for Performing Arts

The Baton Rouge Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Maestro Timothy Muffitt are dedicating their performance of Felix Mendessohn's "Elijah" to the memory of our very own Robert L. "Bobby" Freeman. Mr. Bobby was a long time friend of the BRSO and served as Board Chair from 2008 - 2010.

"Elijah" is a wonderful work of music based on the life of the Prophet Elijah that is perfect for the Lenten Season. It would be a great spiritual experience and a beautiful way to honor the memory of our native son, Bobby Freeman.

Tickets are available on the BRSO website at BRSO.org/tickets.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT GROUP

The Bereavement Support Group will meet in the Parish Hall from 6:30 pm-7:30 pm every 1st Wednesday of the month.

The purpose of this ministry is to comfort those who have experienced the loss of someone important (recent or in the past). There will be prayer, fellowship, and the opportunity to share our struggles with grief in a safe place. Please join us.

You are Covered in Prayer

*May you feel His presence-
Experience His Peace-
Draw from His strength-
Rest in His love-
May God bless and keep you in His loving care.*

If someone you know is having major surgery or has been diagnosed with cancer or any other grave illness, please let us bring you a prayer blanket to help get you through this tough time. It matters not the age, all who need it will receive it.
