April 16, 2017 — Easter Sunday

Alleluia! Easter is here at last! All the days of Lenten discipline and the sadness of Good Friday are over and we are here to rejoice. The readings remind us that we have a lot to rejoice about: the life of Jesus, his death and resurrection, and his promise to us. The psalm describes the stone, Jesus, who was rejected and who has become the very foundation of our faith. But it is John who tells the story of those first moments of uncertainty, fear, and excitement experienced by Mary of Magdala and two disciples, John and Simon Peter, when they discover that their beloved Jesus is not where they had buried him. Even though they do not understand the full meaning of his absence, they still believe.

GONE Acts gives us the whole story in a nutshell. Jesus was baptized, anointed, and preached. He was crucified, died, and rose. Each line of the Gospel gives us a bit more information about this unfolding mystery that Mary of Magdala, John, and Simon Peter are encountering. First, Mary comes and sees just the stone removed from the entrance to the tomb and knows something is wrong. Then John comes and sees the burial cloths lying in the tomb. Finally, Peter comes and enters the tomb and sees the cloths spread around the tomb. But there is no body. What are they to do? What are we to do?

BUT NOT FORGOTTEN Do they understand it all? Do we understand it? No. Not even Jesus' closest friends knew what to make of his absence. But this absence, the absence of his body, does not feel like the loss we experienced on Friday as we recalled his painful, agonizing death. Then we felt loss and fear and a profound emptiness. But his absence today fills us with hope and joy and a peace we only feel when the one we thought was lost is found again. We believe even without understanding because we experience not just his death but his whole life, a life that, as the disciples and we will soon realize, is transformed. We can believe that what Jesus said is true. Every word he spoke about his life and death, about his love for us and for the Father, every transformation of water to wine, every curing of the sick of body and soul, every day spent in the company of outcasts and the poor, every word of comfort and challenge, all of it is true because not even death itself could hold our beloved friend within a tomb.

Today's Readings: Acts 10:34a, 37-43; Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23; Col 3:1-4 or 1 Cor 5:6b-8; Jn 20:1-9

April 16, 2017

Dear Family:

The Lord Is Risen! He Is Risen Indeed!

March 1st of this year we began our Lenten Journey gathering to celebrate Ash Wednesday. Throughout these 40 days we have listened deeply to the Word of God, celebrated the Sacraments, deepened our communion of prayer and offered ourselves in service to our brothers and sisters in Christ. These Lenten efforts have brought us to this day as we proclaim the Savior Jesus Christ "RISEN."

With great joy we celebrate all our efforts, sacrifices and offerings and accept the new life in Christ we have received this Easter. As we closely journeyed with Jesus through these five weeks, we have been given the direction and the strength to unite ourselves to His Way. Now, there is new life in the Risen One. Each of us has been changed, died to some or most of our sins, turned our hearts to the Lord, and are now Raised with Christ anew.

Please remember that Easter is a season lasting seven weeks. Each day at Eucharist reveals more of the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Quite often I find that folks thrive on the Eucharist during Lent and then when Easter comes not so much. Consider continuing with daily Eucharist and experiencing the food that spiritually sustains us.

May God's Holy Blessing come upon us all in this Joy-Filled Season of the Risen Christ!

Many thanks to all of you who helped make our Lent so special. To our Parish Staff and all who minister, I am truly grateful for your many and varied gifts and the generosity with which you serve. Thanks to all our Liturgical Ministers (Altar Servers, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Deacon Ricard, Sacristans for daily Mass, school Mass, weekend Mass and Funerals, Ushers, Cantors, Choir Members, Choir Director, Organists, Acolytes, Lectors, Wedding Coordinators, Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist that visit the homebound). Thanks for all who help keep our Church and facilities so beautiful (Altar Society, Sue Rills, Liturgical Environment Ministers, Mr. Gary Perrault, all those anonymous folks who help clean up after every Mass celebrated, candle ministers, money counters). Thanks for all those who do the work/ministry of compassion (Brother's Keeper, Loaves and Fishes, Weekend Hospitality with Coffee, Bereavement Support, Social Responsibility, Annulments, Nursing Home Ministry). Thanks for all who have been intercessors for the local church and the church throughout the world (Adorers, Holy Spirit Prayer Group, Leaders of Liturgy of the Word with Distribution of Holy Communion, St. John School Students who led the "Walk With Jesus," Mrs. Fremin and the young worshipers at Holy Thursday, Rosary Group, Prayer Blankets for the Sick, Sick List Prayer Group). Thanks to all our Association members who reach out into the community (Ladies of Peter Claver, Catholic Daughters, Knights of Columbus, Alhambra, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, St. Joseph's Altar Ministers, Pastoral Council, Finance Council). Thanks to all our Catechists (Parish School of Religion DREs, Volunteer teachers and helpers, Mary Folsie for providing music for PSR, Children's Church Leaders, Mrs. Schlatter, all of our St. John School teachers, aides, staff, volunteers, Donna Carville and our entire RCIA Team, Gwen Hayes for her Lenten Women's Retreat). Special thanks as well for all who are participating in Kingdom Ministries. There are lots of brothers and sisters in our parish who are taking care of ill parents, providing for folks in poverty, taking care of ill children or other relatives. This is an important ministry that is sometimes not noted and often unappreciated. Your humble way of caring and living out the call of the Gospel is a blessing.

[The list of ministries and ministers may not be complete, I apologize if I left any group out. If so, remind me and I'll give a shout of joy out in upcoming bulletins. After all, there are seven weeks of Easter! Alleluia!]

I feel such great gratitude for the many ways you all show us the Risen Christ. How blessed we are and how generously enriched we are by our communion in Christ. Let us celebrate well these Seven Weeks Of Easter!

The Lord Is Risen! He Is Risen Indeed!

Happy Easter!

Peace,
Fr. Greg

ADULT CONFIRMATION

If you are 18 years of age or over and have not been confirmed in the Catholic Church, please call the Church office at 225.687.2402 to attend 6 classes on Confirmation. The classes will begin Sunday, April 23, and will be held in the church office conference room from 10:00 am-11:00 am.

Classes will be held every Sunday until Pentecost Sunday, June 4, when Bishop Muench confers the Sacrament of Confirmation at St. Joseph Cathedral.

For more information, call Donna Carville at 225.776.3205.

The St. John Church office will be closed
Easter Monday, April 17.

A GRATEFUL ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A grateful acknowledgement is made to the Ladies of the Altar Society for cleaning the church for Easter.

Team 3 will be cleaning the church on the 3rd Tuesday of this month, April 18 at 8:00 am. Volunteers welcome!

St. John Parish Family Outdoor Mass

Join us as we celebrate 11:00 am Mass next Sunday, April 23, 2017 at the Mark A. "Tony" Gulotta Bayou Plaquemine Waterfront Park Pavilion followed by games and festivities!

We will have a space walk, face painting and balloons for the children. Mr. Otis Johnson will provide entertainment with his live music!

Assorted foods will be served such as fried fish, jambalaya, hot dogs and chili! Sweet treats are needed for the dessert room. Bring your favorite dessert, a lawn chair, your family and friends!

Many volunteers are needed and we hope you can help. Please contact Susan at the church office (225.687.2402) or susanblandry@sj.brcocmail.com.

St. John Spring Art Fest

The community can view St. John student art in the St. John Parish Hall after all Masses, April 29 & 30.

Thank you for supporting the arts at St. John School!
