May 14, 2017 — Fifth Sunday of Easter

Today's readings describe the complexities of trying to live a spiritual life while still living in a world that demands concrete action. Acts tell us about disagreements beginning to emerge in the early Christian communities over divisions of labor. Some people are praying and preaching while others are feeding the hungry. In First Peter we are reminded that Jesus is the cornerstone. Jesus was rejected yet is the very foundation for building the community, and yet he also a stumbling block for those who do not follow the path laid out by his life and works. In John we hear again the contrast of the spiritual and the concrete, of houses with many rooms, of truth and life. Is it surprising that the apostles and we are sometimes confused about how to live the life Jesus intended for us?

FINDING REALITY IN FAITH The readings today describe a faith community struggling with the realities of preaching, teaching, praying, and spreading the word of God while others are concerned about putting food on the table and a roof over their heads. In Acts decisions are made about a division of labor. Some will preach and others will ensure that the community is fed. In First Peter there is talk of spiritual houses, builders, and cornerstones, of faith and stumbling blocks. In John, Jesus begins to prepare the apostles for his departure. Jesus talks about his Father's house but the apostles want concrete answers to their questions. They want to see the Father. They don't know the way. Jesus' response is both spiritual and concrete. His answer is both faith and works.

FINDING FAITH IN THE REAL WORLD The tensions within the readings are tensions we feel every day between our faith and the world in which we live. We stumble over stones that litter the way, over lies that hide the truth, even over the reality of death. We want our faith to be solid, so we can test its permanence and reality. But faith is not concrete. Faith is a living thing, a leap into the unknown. Works are concrete. The works of the apostles are what sustained them even as they struggled with their own faith. We must feed the hungry and shelter the homeless even as we speak to ourselves and others of faith beyond brick and mortar. While we live in a world of harsh realities, we must remember there are realities beyond those we see but not beyond our belief. We know that the faith born of love for others and lived out in caring for the sick and sorrowful, the hungry and homeless, the poor and imprisoned is real.

Today's Readings: Acts 6:1-7; Ps 33:1-2, 4-5, 18-19; 1 Pt 2:4-9; Jn 14:1-12

Dear St. John Church and School Community:

Greetings in the Risen Lord! I pray your Easter Season has been filled with graces flowing from the death and Resurrection of Jesus.

I offer this quote from St. Matthew's Gospel (Matthew 5:33b-37) for reflection:

Jesus said: "Again you have heard that it was said to your ancestors, 'Do not take a false oath, but make good to the Lord all that you vow. But I say to you, do not swear at all; not by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is his footstool; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Do not swear by your head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes' and your 'No' mean 'No'. Anything more is from the evil one."

This passage is often not given the respect or reflection it deserves. It is clear that Jesus is teaching us to watch over our tongues. One of the struggles of Christian life is developing a way of conversation that connects with our call to be charitable. I have no doubt that we all earnestly make efforts to engage with others in conversation in such a charitable way. Despite the directives of Jesus above, we can sometimes fail to speak in a manner to which we have been called.

I write you now as your pastor who is in love with our parish and school and want to express my concern for your spiritual welfare regarding rumors, gossip, and lies. Since I came to live with you in Christ over three years ago, I have written several times about this issue. Often, the defensive response given to me is "Father, that's just Plaquemine". This response and attitude is not acceptable and it continues to perpetuate a culture of gross injustice.

Since January these rumors and lies have brought great anxiety to me and has beaten down the spirits of those whom these rumors attack. Let me be clear – if there is something anyone knows that is inappropriate, it is your responsibility to first address this with the one whom you would accuse. Then, should you believe the response inadequate, you may take it to the administration. I cannot fathom any reason for spreading gossip, rumors and/or lies that is in anyway necessary. Furthermore, to deliberately spread such speech that lives and reputations are put at risk is considered serious sin.

It is time to STOP this behavior. So, stop it! Likewise, we need to teach the young people in our school to watch over their tongues. Our example thus far has been poor. Remember Jesus' directive when you find yourself in a situation where you might listen to or participate in such speech. Walk away from such conversations. Better yet, challenge one another on this.

A spiritual director of mine once gave me these three principles to follow with regard to gossip, rumors and/or lies:

- Are my words kind?
- Are my words true?
- Are my words necessary?

Her advice was that anything we say about another person has to be true for all three of these principles. True, our words may not be mean. Our words may even be true. But in most cases – my words are not necessary. Consider these principles and teach them to our young people.

“Say ‘Yes’ when you mean ‘Yes’, and ‘No’ when you mean ‘No’. Anything more is from the evil one.”
(Matthew 5:37)

Peace,

Rev. Gregory J. Daigle

Loving God,

As a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless all mothers, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

On behalf of Fr. Greg, Deacon Alfred Ricard and the entire St. John Parish Staff, we would like to wish all of our mothers a very "Happy Mother's Day".

“All for Jesus” Ministries Fair
Saturday, June 3 and Pentecost Sunday, June 4, 2017
In the Parish Hall after all Masses

St. John the Evangelist has many opportunities to serve and evangelize through its ministries. Our volunteers are vital in sustaining these outreach activities to others in faith. The ministries are in the areas of Worship, Spiritual Life, Community Life and Religious Education.

WORSHIP MINISTRIES are those ministries that are involved in the liturgical celebrations where we hear God’s Word, receive Holy Communion, pray, sing and form the faith community at St. John the Evangelist Church. For more information and becoming involved, please call the church office at 687-2402.

Lectors/Proclaimers proclaim the Word of God and may lead the assembly in prayer at liturgical celebrations. Training and ongoing formation is required for lectors/proclaimers. They read on a rotating schedule at weekend and weekday masses.

Lay Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist are directly commissioned by the Pastor to assist in the distribution of Holy Communion at scheduled liturgies and communion services, to carry Holy Communion to the homebound, the hospitalized and incarcerated. Special training and qualifications apply. They also participate in ongoing formation and serve on a rotating schedule for weekend and weekday Masses.

Altar Servers are students in grades 3-12 or adults who assist the Celebrant at liturgical celebrations. Training is required. They serve on a rotating schedule for weekend masses and weekday masses as well as at special liturgies as needed.

Sacristans set up for special liturgical celebrations, funerals and weddings by attending to supplies, sacred vessels, altar linens and candles. They also attend to the proper storage and inventory of liturgical supplies and equipment in the sacristy.

Ushers serve as ministers of hospitality at Masses in greeting people, assisting with seating, assisting disabled worshippers, receiving offerings, directing a smooth flow of the assembly for receiving Holy Communion and distributing the weekly church bulletin after mass is concluded.

Choir is composed of adults who lead and enable congregational prayer through song at 9:00am Mass and special liturgical celebrations. Choir practice is usually scheduled for Wednesday at 6:45pm generally following the school year with special emphasis for liturgical seasons. Contact Medric Smith for more information.

Liturgical Environment prepares the church for the liturgical seasons or special liturgical celebrations through the use of flower arrangements, decorations, banners or other appointments. Please contact Sallye Troxclair or Evelyn Varnell. For the crèche that adorns our church during Advent to Epiphany, please contact Bruce and Mary Kay Capone.

Prayer Candles located in the side altar in the church are maintained by volunteers who remove those candles that have burned completely and replenish the supply of new candles. Please contact Darryl Boudreaux or David Lobue.

Church Landscaping Committee takes care of maintaining the flowerbeds around the church, parish hall, rectory and parking lots. The committee has divided up the various flowerbeds in order to maintain them. To volunteer contact Donna Carville.

Facilities Maintenance Project Team works with Gary Perrault, Maintenance Manager, on special projects to repair, maintain or improve the facilities of St. John including the church, parish hall/office building and surrounding land as needed. Please contact David LoBue to volunteer to help. (continued next week)
