November 26, 2017—Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe
Leap of Faith

Today's Gospel could be seen as an example of what St. Paul is explaining in the second reading. First, he tells us that the resurrection of Christ is not the end of God's reign, but the beginning. Since death came into the world with the sin of Adam, Christ's death saved us from sin and his resurrection saves us from death. Now that he is risen, he will complete his reign over all creation, meaning that everything in creation that turned away from God will now be subject to God. Since Christ had to die before he could rise, the last enemy to be subjected is death; so too do we have to die before we can rise. When all this happens, everything will show God's glory. God will be seen in all of creation. Jesus will be seen as equal to the Father, not just a man, but the Son of God. The Gospel gives us the image of a king on his throne, surrounded by his subjects. And then comes the final judgment.

The rest of the Gospel is symbolic description of that judgment. I always thought the point of this parable was that we recognize God in the poor, the sick, the homeless, prisoners, etc. But the people in the parable who helped all those in need did not recognize Christ in the needy. That's why he tells them that whatever we do for "these least ones," we do for Christ.

That is actually good news, because it is not always easy to recognize Christ in others. I used to think that once I start seeing Christ in all people, I'll be more willing to help them. But it also works the other way. When you help someone in need, you begin to see Christ there, too. This means that we cannot use not seeing Christ in others as an excuse to put off helping them. ("Sure, I'll help those drug addicts--as soon as I see Jesus in them.") Whether it is a death-row prisoner or a homeless family, we need to take that leap of faith to help, not knowing if we will ever see Christ in them. Remember, God forgives and saves us because we need God, not because we deserve it.

HONORING OUR BELOVED DEAD

The Mass Intention Book is open for the scheduling of Masses for next year (2018). Forms are in the church office, on the bookshelves at the back of Church and on our website, www.stjohnchurchplaq.org. If you wish to schedule a Mass, please fill out a Mass Intention form. Include your name, address and telephone number in the event we have questions about your intentions and need to contact you. We will try to schedule Masses in the order in which the forms are received to the best of our ability.

Please return the form and your check to the St. John church office or drop it in the collection basket at Mass.

Book of Remembrance: During the month of November, parishioners are encouraged to list the names of their deceased loved ones in the Book of Remembrance. This book, located near the stairs to the choir loft in church, will remain in church during the month of November. You may write the names of loved ones in the book at your convenience.

Guide Book & Directory

It is time for us to update our database with any changes, additions, or deletions that may have occurred in YOUR family over the past year.

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for our Church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our Church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our Church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise.

Does our Church database have YOUR family membership record correct? Here is your chance to update YOUR record for our annual Guide Book & Directory (if you haven't already done so).

Have you changed your phone number? Have you moved? Are you preparing to move soon? Are all of your children still at home and are they all included in your membership record? Do you want your record published?

If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the church office. Recent survey results by Guide Book publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

If you have not already informed the church office about changes to your record, please notify us at 225.687.2402.

Thank you for your help!

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION

St. John School held their annual Veterans Day Mass and celebration on Wednesday, November 8. This special event on campus allows the school community to show their gratitude for the service and sacrifice of veterans and active members of the armed forces.

During the program in St. Clement Chapel, the St. John community heard a special address from Mr. Joey Nicolosi about his years in the U.S. Army. St. John students also participated in poster, poetry, and essay contests as part of the event. Award winners Mary Kleinpeter, Chloe Markins, and Sydni Schnebelen presented their work. Following those events, Eagle fans lined up for the annual honor walk, as guests made their way to a special reception in the school library.

Commemoration of Immaculate Conception Church (decommissioned) to be held before 6:00 pm Mass on Friday, December 8, 2017

Immaculate Conception Church, a mission of St. Francis Xavier Church in Baton Rouge through the collaboration of Rev. Leonard Robin and the Josephites (Society of St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart), opened its doors in the 1930's at its location on Main Street in Plaquemine to serve the community primarily attending the school which was also located there. The pastors that served the community of faith that gathered there each week were Jesuit priests assigned part time to Immaculate Conception. It also served the needs of the parishioners, families and friends. Many Catholic residents in the Plaquemine area also attended, supported and cherished the closeness to God that they experienced at Immaculate Conception.

The last baptism was celebrated on February 12, 1984 before the doors of Immaculate Conception were officially closed in 1987. Through those 50 years, the pastors that served Immaculate Conception brought peace, comfort, a deep sense of family and faith sharing to its parishioners, families, friends and the surrounding community.

In recognition of the Immaculate Conception Church, there will be a commemoration service for the faithful of Immaculate Conception Church on Friday, December 8, 2017, before the 6:00 pm Mass on the feast day of Immaculate Conception. The service will be held on the lawn near St. John the Evangelist Church statue of Mary at 5:00 pm where the bell that rang at that church has been relocated. A reception after the 6:00 pm Mass will be held in the church parish hall hosted by the Altar Society. St. John the Evangelist Church parishioners welcome and continue to open their hearts to the Immaculate Conception Church parishioners.

All Immaculate Conception parishioners are gratefully invited to attend the commemoration service, Mass and reception.

Christmas Cards for Inmates

The Catholic Community at Louisiana State Penitentiary and the Chaplain's Department are inviting our parish to participate in the Christmas card program. Their goal is to provide each inmate with at least 5 cards and envelopes.

Anyone interested in donating new religious Christmas cards should drop them off at the St. John Church office by Friday, December 1. Deacon Alfred Ricard will be taking the cards to the prison.

We can accept Birthday and Get Well cards also. Religious cards are preferred.

Advent Giving Tree

The Giving Tree will be set up in church starting Saturday, November 25, 2017 for you to take a candy cane with a child's name. Please buy a Christmas gift ($10-$15) and share the joy of Jesus' birth with them.

The names of the children have been provided to us by the Plaquemine area schools. If you are aware of any needy families and children, please call the church office at 225.687.2402 so that we may include them in this season's ministry.
