Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time — July 1, 2018 Who's More Generous?

Does the Christian duty to help the poor seem to be overwhelming? We hear more and more about the homeless and jobless. Even in St. Paul's time there was more than enough poverty to go around. He was trying to build interest (in our second reading) in a project to help the Christians in Jerusalem. We see two of his reasons here.

First he tells what fine Christians they are, and hopes that they will be just as good in giving to his collection. Paul is challenging them to continue to show their love for God in their support for fellow Christians. The second reason was to show a good example: By helping the church in Jerusalem, they would show that Christians were united in faith and love for each other.

The main example he uses is Jesus, who made himself poor (i.e., human) so that we could be rich in grace and forgiveness. Paul challenges them, and us, to follow that example in giving from our wealth so that others can survive. Note that he doesn't expect them to live in poverty, just to share what they have out of love for Christ.

Today, we can ask ourselves, "Do I give to the poor because I feel guilty about all that I have? Or do I want to show my love for Jesus when I see him in the poor?" By looking at why we give to charities, we may find ourselves being even more generous than we expected.

Eucharistic Adoration

In the prayer of Adoration, I seek to realize the greatness of God, my Creator and my last end. When I enter into the depths of my soul and ponder who God is and who I am, almost instinctively I kneel and express sentiments of my faith in God, my hope and trust in God, and above all, my love for God.

—John J. Cardinal Carberry, p.7 Reflections and Prayers for Visits with Our Eucharistic Lord

Available hours for scheduled visitation of the Blessed Sacrament in the Adoration Chapel are:

- Thursday: 1pm-2pm
- Friday: 6pm-7pm

- Sunday: 3pm-4pm
