Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

All My Love

According to Jesus, the first commandment is to love God with heart, mind, soul, and strength. This is usually taken to mean loving God with your whole being. But it wouldn't hurt to look at the modern meanings of those words to see how we can apply them.

The heart is the symbol of our desires and love. So to love God with all your heart can mean that you recognize God as the one source of your life. That means you love God above everything and everyone. How many of us can say we would rather spend time with God, than with our friends, family, or loved ones?

To love God with all your mind can mean that you never stop thinking of God. You can ask God to help you any time you make a decision, whether it is what to watch next on TV, or what to do for a living. The better you know God, the more likely you are to hear God in your decisions. You can get to know God through the scriptures and other spiritual reading.

If the soul is the center of your spiritual life, then loving God with all your soul can remind you to listen to God when you pray. You might remember how annoying it can be to converse with someone who does all the talking. At first it is easy, but eventually you find yourself getting nervous because you have things you would like to say also. Think of that when you pray; give God a chance to put in a few words, too.

Finally, to love God with all your strength can mean you put as much energy into loving God as you do with exercising, doing your day-job, cleaning the house, or mowing the lawn. Just remember that no matter how hard you work for the Lord, God loves you even more than you love Him.

Dear Family:

Please find in this weekend's bulletin our Financial Statement for the Fiscal Year. We publish our statement once a year to inform you of our financial standing. After consultation with the Finance Committee we seek your continued generosity in our efforts to enable the Kingdom of God to come to full fruition.

As you know, we are still in the process of repairs from the lightning strike in late August. While insurance coverage will be helpful, it is important to note that our policy with Catholic Mutual alone will not help us return to where we were before the damage.

Please read over our statement. Please approach us with questions should you have any. St. John is our Church together. Finally, please consider increasing your contributions to the church. Pray for continued generous financial support for our Church. We need your help now.

With great thanksgiving for your generosity,

Fr. Greg Daigle

Enjoying the Beauty of Fall at St. John...

Many thanks to Robbie and Jeffrey Dupont and Dupont Nursery for their donation of plants for fall that decorate our church grounds. Thanks as well to the landscape team whose ministry is to plant them:

Wayne Gomez, Joyce Daigle, Derryl Comeaux, Rosemary Cox, June Pinsonat, Mary Jo Caffarel, Barbara Quirk, Betty Aucoin, Trish Ramirez, Sandra Smothers, Ann Joffrion, Charlie and Donna Carville. If you are interested in this ministry, please let us know.

2018 International Acadian Festival Mass of Thanksgiving

HONORING OUR BELOVED DEAD

All Saints' Day Blessing of the Graves Sunday, November 4, 2018

St. John Cemetery — 12 Noon
Grace Memorial — 1:30pm

The Mass Intention Book is open for the scheduling of Masses for next year (2019). Forms are on the bookshelves at the back of church and on our church website under the FORMS tab at www.stjohnchurchplaq.org.

If you wish to schedule a Mass, fill out a Mass Intention form including your name, address and telephone number in the space provided. We will contact you in the event we have questions about your intentions. We will try to schedule Masses in the order in which the forms are received to the best of our ability.

Please return the form and your check to the St. John church office or drop it in the collection basket at any weekend Mass.

Book of Remembrance

During the month of November, parishioners are encouraged to list the names of their deceased loved ones in the Book of Remembrance. This book will remain near the stairs to the choir loft in church during the month of November. You may write the names of loved ones in the book at your convenience.
