Heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him give ourselves in love as he did. No matter how bad I was in the past, the Lord loves me enough to forgive it all, and even better, to give the Spirit to help me stay close to God.

How do we prepare for this? We can start by hearing the words of the readings today, letting them sink into our hearts and minds. Ask the Spirit to help look for ways you can be more loving with your family, then with your friends, and eventually with anyone who needs your help. When we let that Spirit guide us, we become like Jesus in that we can listen for God to say, "You are my beloved child; with you I am well pleased" (see Luke 3:22).

The Baptism of the Lord

January 13, 2019

Fear Not

Did the first reading from Isaiah sound familiar? It was also heard on the first Sunday of Advent in December of 2008. I suppose it could be a reminder that John the Baptist appears at the beginning of the Advent/Christmas season and at the end. In Advent we were preparing for Jesus' coming at Christmas. Now we are preparing for his coming at any time.

The reading from Isaiah talks about the Lord coming in mercy to the people whose "guilt is expiated" (Isaiah 40:2). With our sins forgiven we need not fear asking God for help: "Fear not to cry out" (Isaiah 40:9). The Lord comes in power, not to strike sinners down but to shepherd them and lead them.

In the second reading, St. Paul has a similar theme. Jesus gave his life for us on the cross so that we could be free to

Nativity Scene in Church

Our beautiful crèche with life-size Fontanini figures will be available for viewing until Sunday, January 13, 2019 at 4:30 pm. This will be the last opportunity for anyone to make a prayerful visit to Our Lord and Savior in the crèche until next year.

We are in need of volunteers to help dismantle the crèche and decorations Monday, January 14. Meet us in church at 8:00 am if you can help.

With Gratitude from the Deacon

To All the Generous Parishioners of St. John the Evangelist Church Parish:

I am so overwhelmed to have so many good friends remember me and my family at Christmas. You all remain in my daily prayers and I ask that you keep me and my family in yours. Happy New Year!

With Sincerest Appreciation,
Deacon Alfred Ricard.
