Teach and Remind

I'm not very good at telling jokes. I like them, but after I hear one and laugh at it, I let it go and forget it. I suspect this doesn't just apply to jokes. The Gospel today hints that the disciples may have had the same weakness when Jesus says the Spirit will "teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26).

Jesus spent three years teaching his disciples and showing them how much God loves them and how to love their neighbor. He used parables as examples and miracles as signs of the Father's love. He answered their questions and explained things privately. Knowing that this would still not be enough, he promised to send the Spirit after he had risen. You have to experience some things to understand them. And that is what the disciples would do.

When they received the Spirit after Jesus' resurrection, they also began to do the things Jesus talked about. They fed the poor and healed the sick. Thus they began to experience Jesus in those around them. They would remember what Jesus had taught them and apply it in their lives. They even accepted suffering for their faith.

We too can receive that promise from Jesus to have the Spirit teach and remind us. As we share our faith with others, we begin to experience Jesus in them. As we listen to the Lord in prayer, we are reminded of passages in the Bible and we begin to understand how they apply in our lives. May the Holy Spirit teach and remind us of the signs of God's love.

June 9, 2019

Dear Family:

We celebrate the Feast of Pentecost this weekend. The First Reading draws upon a long tradition in the Old Testament where God has been preparing for the outpouring of the gift of the Holy Spirit. In the creation account, God's Spirit hovers over the waters of the chaos and brings about the creation of the world. Now with the outpouring of the Spirit on the first Apostles, God brings to birth a new world. When God created the human person, God breathed on the clay he had formed and it became a living human being. In today's reading, the Apostles gathered as a strong wind rocks the room. This symbolizes God's breath transforming these scared followers into courageous missionaries. At the Tower of Babel, the quest to become equal with God resulted in disharmony. The numerous languages of humanity symbolize their inability to communicate with each other, resulting in alienation. With the appearance of the tongues of fire, a reversal takes place: God grants the Apostles the gift of speaking to enable all who hear to understand. What first divided humanity, now unites them. In this gift of the Spirit, God restores human beings to unity with one another and with God - what God had intended at the very beginning of creation.

In the Second Reading, Paul teaches that the gift of the Spirit makes us God's children, uniting us with one another and with Christ. We become Christ's heirs, called to embrace his life of suffering that will lead us to "be glorified with him."

Today's Gospel portrays Jesus promising to send the Holy Spirit to "teach you everything." Through the power of the Spirit, God dwells within us, enabling us to live anew.

Some questions for reflection:

- What do the images of wind and "tongues of fire" symbolize in the First Reading?
- Why is the gift of the Spirit God's greatest gift to us?
- On what occasions have you experienced the presence of God's Spirit in your life?

Peace,

Fr. Greg
