Who's More Generous?

Does the Christian duty to help the poor seem to be overwhelming? We hear more and more about the homeless and jobless. Even in St. Paul's time there was more than enough poverty to go around. He was trying to build interest (in our second reading) in a project to help the Christians in Jerusalem. We see two of his reasons here.

First he tells what fine Christians they are, and hopes that they will be just as good in giving to his collection. Paul is challenging them to continue to show their love for God in their support for fellow Christians. The second reason was to show a good example: By helping the church in Jerusalem, they would show that Christians were united in faith and love for each other.

The main example he uses is Jesus, who made himself poor (i.e., human) so that we could be rich in grace and forgiveness. Paul challenges them, and us, to follow that example in giving from our wealth so that others can survive. Note that he doesn't expect them to live in poverty, just to share what they have out of love for Christ.

Today, we can ask ourselves, "Do I give to the poor because I feel guilty about all that I have? Or do I want to show my love for Jesus when I see him in the poor?" By looking at why we give to charities, we may find ourselves being even more generous than we expected.

Plaquemine Main Street Hometown Celebration

~ Celebrating 20 Years ~

Mark A. "Tony" Gulotta

Bayou Plaquemine Waterfront Park

Sunday, July 4, 2021 ~ 5pm

The City of Plaquemine is ramping up its July 4th Hometown Celebration this year with music of Phat Hat. The celebration of our nation's birthday will also include many residents' favorites: a patriotic boat parade, games for the kids, plenty of food, booths, and fun.

Festivities begin at the Mark A. "Tony" Gulotta Bayou Plaquemine Waterfront Park at 5pm, but the Iberville Museum will be open earlier in the day for tours. Close out the fun with a great fireworks display at 9pm! Contact 225.687.3116 for information.

If any adult or student would like to help in the soft drink and water booths, contact Lorraine Hidalgo at 225.687.6891. Service hours will be earned by helping.

The measure that you measure with will be measured back to you. If you think you may be called to serve Jesus as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life, consider the measure of God's mercy you will give and receive. Contact Fr. Josh Johnson at 225.336.8778, jjohnson@diobr.org, or visit www.diobr.org/vocations.
