Peace Be With You

Chapter 20 of the Gospel of John emphasizes Peace and the Holy Spirit abiding within us. Christ's first word following His death is "Peace". I do not find that I am naturally a peaceful person. I tend to get easily distracted and upset by life not being "fair", or agitated when things do not go exactly as I had planned. I am flawed. Yet so much greater than this is that I am also loved. Above all else, Christ has laid down his life for me. I owe it to Him to do my best to try to find an inner peace. It is often a battle. My mind races at night, dwelling on what might go wrong. It is by listening to the word of God that I calmed down and am reminded of who I really am. Through dedicating my time to Him in prayer and good deeds, He will rejuvenate me, like the Living Water He declares to the Samaritan woman.

Again and again we must acknowledge that the Holy Spirit resides in each of us, guiding us, and that in each passing moment we can become more like

Christ. Pope Benedict XVI explained, "Every person carries within himself, a project of God, a personal vocation, a personal idea of God, on what he is required to do in history to build His Church, a living temple of His presence." I have a calling, a reason for why God has created me, I was chosen for this life to share God's glory with those around me. We may not always know where we belong or how each passing moment might unfold. While I may not be at peace on my own accord, with God's grace, He will remain in me as a source of peace through the Holy Spirit. He will help me find the way.

Pastor's Letter

April 7, 2024

Dear Family:

Today's Gospel reading gives us much more to consider besides the question of doubt. Jesus shows his hands and side twice in this Gospel. Before responding to Thomas' request Jesus volunteered to do so a week earlier for two purposes: (1) to authenticate that he is indeed the crucified Jesus; and (2) to confirm that he is not an apparition.

Surprisingly, the disciples are still hiding behind locked or closed doors when the resurrected Jesus shows up the second time, since the verbs about the doors being locked or closed are the same in Jn 20:19, 26. Are they afraid that they will suffer what Jesus suffered? Although these two resurrection appearances emphasize the wounds he suffered from the Roman Empire, they simultaneously announce that resurrection faith is about believing in life even when traumatic deaths and losses surround us (Jn 20:31). The resurrected Jesus visits them and sends them out into the world with the Holy Spirit and his peace to tell the world that there is life amid sin and death.

Our other New Testament readings provide beautiful pictures of the post-Easter community. Among themselves, the disciples share their possessions. Nevertheless, they are not an in-grown community that ignores the rest of the world. They testify to Jesus' resurrection "with great power" (Acts 4:33), because their faith in Jesus and in life is more powerful than all the powers of this world.

Some questions for reflection:

Jesus was crucified by the Romans and John's Gospel is clear that the Romans were the only ones who had the power to kill (Jn 18:31). Then why are the disciples said to be afraid of "the Jews"? (Jn 20:19)

Does the reference to the time of the resurrected Jesus' first appearance to the disciples ("on the evening," Jn 20:19) have any significance, especially in light of the fact that John also has Mary Magdalene going to the empty tomb "while it was still dark"? Jn 20:1

What causes us to want to lock up and lock down in fear today?

Thanks to all who helped make this weekend's Outdoor Mass such a great event. It is beautiful to be able to gather and create a sacred space of worship in the beauty of nature. It is also a great time of fellowship in the Risen Lord.

On a personal note, I will be visiting my brother in Tennessee from April 9th - 17th. My brother, Paul, has lined up some projects around his farm property. I look forward to some one-on-one time with him at work and time with his family. I'll return for 7am & school Masses on April 17th.

Please give a warm welcome to the priests who will be celebrating Eucharist with you next weekend. Fr. Tom Ranzino (recently retired from parish work but continuing to lead the Diocesan Office of Worship), Fr. Paul Counce and Fr. David Allen. All of these retired Brother Priests are a gift to us. Please express your appreciation for their ministry.

Peace,

Fr. Greg

Eucharistic Adoration

Devotion for April: The Blessed Sacrament

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life; all of our works are oriented toward it. Jesus' body, blood, soul, and divinity are truly present in a small host. When we receive the Blessed Sacrament we unite ourselves to God and receive the life and healing He longs to give us.

Saint Mother Teresa of Calcutta said: "The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in Heaven, and will help bring about everlasting peace on earth."

The Adoration Chapel is open from 4am-10pm. To volunteer for a scheduled hour or as a substitute, contact JoAnn Daigle at 225.687.4621 or 225.776.4865.
